

South Carolina Department of Agriculture

Hugh Weathers, Commissioner

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – September 26, 2008

Buy South Carolina.
Nothing's Fresher. Nothing's Finer.

Denver Downs supports Certified SC Grown with corn maze

ANDERSON, SC – Denver Downs Farm, owned and operated by the Garrison family, is hosting “Fall Fun Farm Days” on the weekends of September 26 through November 2. Families and friends are invited to spend the day enjoying a day on the farm – featuring the 6th Annual Corn Maze, Giant Pumpkin Patch, Hayrides, Hay Barn, Farm Animals and many more activities!

Denver Downs is working in conjunction with the South Carolina Department of Agriculture to promote the Certified South Carolina program. The maze design this year focuses on South Carolina grown, touting that Nothing's Finer.

This family oriented event is located on the site of the 100 year old family farm on Clemson Boulevard (Highway 76) north of I-85. (30 minutes from Greenville)

The Fall Fun Farm Days will be open Fridays 5 p.m. to 10 p.m., Saturdays 10 a.m. to 10 p.m., and Sundays 1 p.m. to 6 p.m., September 26 through November 2, 2008. Arrangements may be made for weekday group appointments. Admission is $8 per person and free for kids two and under.

Denver Downs Farm is located on Clemson Boulevard in Anderson. For directions and other information, contact Elizabeth Garrison, 864-230-9800, or Lee Garrison Smith, 864-940-2293, Denverdownsfarm@yahoo.com, or visit www.denverdownsfarm.com for more information.

 end ***

Contact:

Becky Walton, 803-734-2182, bwalton@scda.sc.gov

Stephen Hudson, 803-734-0648, sdhudson@scda.sc.gov